FR DAY EVENING, MAY 19, 1893.

AT THE examination of a foreigner in New York last Wednesday on the charge of conspiring to blow up a factory in which he was employed, but the management of which did not suit him, a fellow conspirator turned State's evidence, and testified that he, the prisoner and thirty-three other anarchists had gone to the crowded May labor meeting at Union Square last year, all armed with dynamite bombs, which the Land Office on account of reduced they would have exploded if the police had attempted to interfere. And yet these men come here freely and are admitted to all the immunities and privileges of the natives. They show their gratitude for that favor by such reckless and diabolical attempts as those referred to. And, strangest of all, is the fact that the demagogues in Congress pander to them, by opposing treaties which provide for the rendition of such county, G. F. French, were appointed men to the countries from which they have fled to escape punishment for their murderous crimes.

MR. NORDHOFF, in his latest dispatch from Honolulu to the New York Herald, says: "The plain truth is that the aunexation movement was to some extent Minister, who consulted with them and which the leaders were helpless, to upset the constitutional government to which he was accredited." And yet the minister referred to was requested by his government to remain longer at Honolulu, will come home voluntarily, and when he returns will be received with ovations. If he had been the minhe would have been recalled and brought back under arrest as soon as intelligence of his actions was received, to follow his example.

MR. G. A. SALA, in the London Times, says: "Let it be, however, distinctly understood that in the field and in camp the Union army, which, as I have previously said, was eventually a million strong, was, so far as the rank and file were concerned, wholly and this is history. The Union army, according to the rolls now in the War Department at Washington, was "eventually" three million strong; but, numerous as it was, no man in or out of it ever before heard that it was "wholly and completely a teetotal army." According to the personal knowledge of the writer of this article, many of its members were in anything else than a teetotal condition at the time they were wound ed or made prisoners.

IN ALL the cities and towns of Canada now, a bell is rung at nine o'clock at years of age found on the streets after satisfactory explanations. This is done by an old law which has just been revived. The mind's experience will come at length, and time proves that old things are the best. The operation of such a law in this country would have kept many a girl and boy from "going to the bad," and would keep many more from going there.

Several enquiring-minded democrats of Southwestern Virginia who are now in this city on business pertaining to the federal offices are still allowing their minds to be muddled over a somewhat silly conundrum concerning their distinguished fellow countryman, Hon. Hoge Tyler, a strong candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the "Old Dominengineered by men who are not citizens, aided and encouraged by the American section of the renowned Commonwealth. This conundrum in the nature of a question, appearing at first glance furnished United States troops, without to be of a silly and trifling character, has, it is stated, perplexed quite a number of wise heads including that of : gentleman, who, it is understood, will soon go on a mission of light to the old world in the diplomatic or consular service of his country. In the hope of giving relief to his and other agitated minds it is here, and now explicitly declared, that the Hon. Hoge Tyler endorsed most warmly and emphatically ister of any other country in the world, a Southwestern citizen for the office of marshal of the western district, and that his name is James R. Tyler may have been in vain, it might have fallen on deaf ears or proved as futile as the one which sum-moned "the spirits of the vasty deep," but the Lieut.-Governor undoubtedly 'rung up" the representative and sent the message adjuring him to go with completely a teetotal army." PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL COUNCIL.

SECOND DAY.

WINCHESTER, Va., May 18, 1893. The council met ati half-past ten o'clock and was opened with divine Reports were given from members of the various branches, and it is hoped service. Morning prayer was read by the Revs. Preston Nash, of Richmond, and H. B. Lee, of Charlottesville. Rev. Hartley Carmichael, of Richmond, preached the sermon from St. John 15; 25, "They hated me without a cause. At the close of divine service the Bishop called the Council to order for business. After the reading of the minutes by the secretary the Bishop appointed the regular committee of the council. He then made his annual address which we summarize as follows: He began by saying that the conditions under which the council meets are greatly changed and very sad ow-ing to the death of several of the clergy and the fact that half of the original diocese is now a separate organization. He thought the line of division adopted by thecouncil held at Danville an unwise one, but as he could not be present he did not feel at liberty to withhold his consent. The action of the last council on division was confirmed by the general convention and primary council of the new diocese met in St Paul's church, Lynchburg, for organization Nov. 23th, 1892, at which the Bishop made an address which he desired to be placed on the minutes of this council. The Bishop referred to his illness and gave a system of the council of the bishop referred to his illness and gave a system of the council of th nopsis of Bishop Randolph's work prior to the confirmation of the division of the diocese, and his own as follows: Episcopal visitations 44, confirmations 312, postulants received 8, candidates for deacon's orders, admitted 1, present number of candidates for deacon's orders 1 white and 1 colored, total 2; candidates for deacon's condens 1 didates for priest's orders, admitted, 8 present number 23, deacons ordained 3 presbyters 4, ministers deceased 3, letters dimissary given 6, accepted 2, churches consecrated 3, lay readers licensed 20, present number of ministers (of whom 4 are in Brazil and 3 are colored) 80, number of churches and chap-els (14 colored) 144. By the death of Dr. Dashiell the council was left without a secretary at a most important juncture. As the canons make no provision for such an emergency the Bish-op appointed Miss Dashiell, who was most competent for the work, besides having her father's papers in possession, to perform the duties of the office until the meeting of council. As she has done the work efficiently he requested that her father's salary be continued to her up to the date of the election of the new secretary. Rev. W. M. Clark has been appointed on the board of examining chaplains to take the place of the Rev. B. D. Tucker, now in the new diocese. Rev. J. J. Norwood has resigned the position of evangelist, leaving only Rev. Everard Meade in the field. Bishop urged the importance of keeping up the country parishes, as the city churches received a number of mem bers from them, and most of the caudidates for holy orders also come from this source. He thanked the children of the diocese for their liberal contributions to diocesan missions during Lent. and commended most highly the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, urging the formation of a branch in every parish. The Bishop referred in feeling terms to the deceased ministers, Revs. R. K. Meade, J. S. Hauckel and T. G. Dash-to manage the affairs of the diocese without other assistance.

The election of the standing commit-

Dr. James Grammer suc ceeds Rev. J. B. Funsten, now of South-ern Virginia. Messrs. Julian T. Burke and L. M. Blackford were elected as trustees of the Episcopal fund in place of Messrs. Arthur Herbert and C. R. Hooff, resigned. The report of the brotherhood was handed in by Rev. L. W. Burton, who also held the report of printed as an appendix to the journal. Rev. G. M. Murray asked that the committee on the relation of convocational to diocesan missionary work of which he is a member, be discharged. The Bishop appointed one to succeed this consisting of Revs. H. B. Lee, Carter Page, and Messrs. David Meade and

J. C. Cooke. The report of the committee on the substitute for article V. of the diocesan constitution which was submitted by Mr. L. M. Blackford yesterday, was next offered and recommended for adoption. There was a minority of the committee opposed to the substitute, Revs. James Grammer, D. D., and G. W. Nelson. Discussion followed in which Revs. Dr. Grammer, G. W. Nelson, Messrs. L. M. Blackford and Joseph Bryan took part. As the hour of adjournment now arrived the council took a recess until four o'clock.

THURSDAY'S SESSION.

The council was called to order at 4 p. m. by the Bishop. The discussion of the morning was continued by Major R. Taylor Scott, Professor Grammer Major John Page, and L. M. Blackford A vote was called for by orders on thi question and the substitute was lost.

Rev. Augus Crawford moved that prayer be offered at the missionary meeting to-night for the missionaries in Brazil and China in view of the revolution and troubles in those counties. This was unanimously carried.

The report of the committee on the division of dlocesan funds between the two dioceses was read by Mr. Joseph Bryan, and a resolution offered by Maj Page recommending that the report be accepted was asked to be adopted by the council. The division of the funds is to be made on the basis of the report made to the General Convention which will give the diocese of Virginia 46.156 per cent., say $48,042.49 and Southern Virginia 53.844 per cent., making a dif-ference in favor of the diocese of Southern Virginia of $8,002.23. There was a good deal of discussion on this subject. but the matter was left as it came from the hands of the committee with a resolution to appoint a committee of three (composed of Messrs, Joseph Bryan, Thomas Potts and John L. Williams) who are authorized to settle and pay over the funds to the authorities of the Southern diocese.

The council then adjourned. cial service and communion. An earn-protesting against the opening of the est sermon was preached by Rev. L.W. Chicago fair on Sundays,

The State Committee.

The Virginia democratic executive committee met in Richmond last night and selected Richmond as the place and August 17 as the date for holding the convention to nominate a State vote stood: Richmond, 19; Norfolk 17. The meeting was more largely atended than any gathering of that body for some years past. Mr. Basil B. Gordon, the chairman, oresided.

The committee decided that the basis of representation to the convention shall be one delegate to every 100 votes and one delegate for each the woman's auxiliary asking that it be | tion thereof in excess of 50 cast for Cleveland at the last presidential election. That vote was 163,977, which on the basis agreed upon last night will give a convention of about 1,640 members. This will be a body about as large as that which assembled there last May to elect delegates to the Chicago convention and which was found so un-

An hour or more of the committee's time was occupied in discussing a proposition to prohibit members from ing proxies to persons other than representatives of their own congressional districts. It was finally agreed to by a decisive vote.

DID NOT WANT A HOT BREAKFAST. There was a marriage in town last Monday at the residence of one of our ministers. After the ceremony the newly married couple repaired to their residence, and were quietly seated in the house, when a lot of young men and youths, bent on fun, thought they would give the bride and groom a calathumpian serenade. Supplying themselves with a full stock of tin pans and other "instruments" calculated to make life miserable, the crowd of serenaders repaired to the home of the couple and commenced their music.

They had not discoursed the "sweet strains" for many minutes before the groom appeared at the door of his house and informed the "musicians" that they must desist, or there would be trouble. "For," said he,"the doctors and the corporation officials say I am crazy, and therefore not responsible for what I do, and if you do not leave immediately some of you will be apt to eat your breakfast in sheel."

The determined face of the speaker and the sight of a gun inside the house gave a rather ugly look to the affair, and the serenaders concluded they did not want a hot breakfast, and quickly departed.-Fredericksburg Lance.

No Office for Liquor Men.-The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury formulated another administration "policy" yesterday. A Pennsylvania congressman called on him with a candidate for an office which he held under Mr. Cleveland's first administration. Mr. Curtis listened courteously to the congressman's recommendations and endorsements of his man, his generosity to the campaign fund, his influence with the "boys," etc. Then he asked:
"Is it true that this man keeps a liquor saloon in Philadelphia?" gressman and the candidate were amazed at the question, and finally both replied that it was true. "That settles it," said Mr. Curtis. "It is my policy not to appoint any man, no matter how good a democrat he is, who runs a liquor saloon."

To HELLO ACROSS THE CONTINENT .- The longest telephone circuit in the world is now projected by the Automatic Telephone and Electric Company of Canada, which intends to lay a line of copper wires on the metallic-circuit plan from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to Vancouver. This is a distance of 3,500 miles. Copper is by far the best conductor, and elec-tricians have so far advanced their methods that they can calculate to a nicety what is rethat they can calculate to a nicety what is required. The circuit will be, of course, in sec-tions, and be available for communication to many intermediate points. It is a great and wonderful experiment, which the scientific world will watch with intense interest. If it world will watch with intense interest. If it proves a success there seems to be no good reason why the instrument cannot be used to transmit speech across the widest oceans.—
